Label story

100% unkind palm oil made in Indonesia by Ima, a ten-year-old girl, who is forced to work in order to bring home the bacon. In the dangerous poisonous plantation, she has to suffer from the heat and pick up barbed fruits without gloves and shoes for twelve hours a day. In the long term, inhaling the poison gas of pesticide made her suffer from a chronic disease. However, she was even unable to afford any medical expenses due to her low income. Moreover, in the unmanned working lounge, her boss also gave her an “unkind treatment,” and threatened her not to tell anyone. You get Kinder surprise; she gets “Un” kinder demise.
